Dear Members, Dear insurance lawyers,

AIDA and ALJB are proposing an update on the recent regulatory developments and what this means in practice for insurers who wish to outsource activities.

Mr de Waersegger will set out the changes introduced by the recent Circular letter CAA 22/16 on the outsourcing of critical or important operational functions and activities. He will describe the main evolutions brought by this new Circular letter and provide with practical guidelines as to its implementation.

Mrs Schepers and Mrs Elsen from the CAA have accepted to participate to a Q&A session on this new Circular letter 22/16 allowing the audience to raise any question in advance of this conference and obtain the views of the CAA.

Questions will have to be sent in writing no later than 13 October 2022 to the e-mail address: info@aidaluxembourg.org.

Language: The session will be held in English.

Members only: The event is free of charge but reserved for ALJB (including AIDA) members. It is therefore recommended that all insurance experts interested in the conference send an application through ALJB's website before the registration deadline and send an e-mail to AIDA as indicated below.

Registrations: www.aljb.lu (section Evenements – Next events, accessible with your member credentials only) by 13 October 2022 at the latest.

On premises participation: The number of seats available is limited and will be attributed on a “first come, first served” principle. A drink will be offered by Arendt & Medernach at the end of the conference.

Certificate of attendance: Participants who sign the register on premises will receive a certificate of attendance.

AIDA: The “Association Internationale du Droit de l'Assurance” has relaunched its Luxembourg Chapter in collaboration with ALJB. Those who are interested to join AIDA's Luxembourg Chapter are invited to express their interest by sending an e-mail to info@aidaluxembourg.org, and to follow our initiatives on AIDA Luxembourg's LinkedIn account and on the website www.aidaluxembourg.org.
