President of the ALJB*

Bar admission : 2001
Languages : French / English

Nicolas Thieltgen is the founder and Managing Partner of Brucher Thieltgen & Partners, where he leads the Dispute Resolution and Banking & Finance departments.

He is widely recognised for his strategic approach and expertise in handling complex litigation before Luxembourg's civil, commercial, and administrative courts, as well as before European courts and authorities. Since 2024, he has been ranked as a Leading Partner by the Legal 500 directory, a distinction that reflects his strong track record and significant role in the evolution of dispute resolution in Luxembourg. He is also the author of the "Featured In-Depth Overview – Dispute Resolution for European Guide 2025 Luxembourg" for the legal directory Chambers & Partners, a leading authority in international legal research. This flagship contribution provides an in-depth analysis of key trends and recent developments in Luxembourg dispute resolution.

In addition, Nicolas is a recognised authority in banking and finance law in Luxembourg, advising major financial sector players on complex regulatory issues at both national and international levels, as well as on the structuring and implementation of financing transactions. He currently serves as President of the ALJB (Association Luxembourgeoise des Juristes de Droit Bancaire), www.aljb.lu.

Isabelle Lebbe is a Partner in the Investment Management practice of Arendt & Medernach. Alongside her legal career, Isabelle Lebbe has also developed expertise in transition management.

She specializes in career transition. Her thesis, which was awarded a distinction as part of her Masters in Change Management at INSEAD, focused on the transition to retirement. She has published various articles and spoken on podcasts related to this topic. She is currently working on programs which are aimed at both organisations and individuals in order to accompany them through that major phase.

In addition to advisory activities, Isabelle Lebbe has extensive experience in teaching and program development. She is the founder and director of Arendt Institute, the Arendt's learning organisation which provides open courses through training agendas, digital modules and dedicated training programmes designed to meet the specific context of clients' organisations. Isabelle also leads the diversity and sustainability initiatives within the group.

A regular conference speaker, Isabelle teaches at the University of Luxembourg. She has been a member of the Luxembourg Bar since 1999. She is the co-author of a book entitled Collective Investment Schemes in Luxembourg: Law and Practice (Oxford University Press).

She lives and works in Luxembourg.

SUMMARY OF CURRICULUM VITAE

JOSEPH DELHAYE

Mr. DELHAYE has gained over the last thirty years a long-standing experience as Head Legal and Senior Vice-President at Spuerkeess (State and Savings Bank, Luxembourg). Furthermore, he acted until mid-2025 as a Chairman of both the Legal & Retail Committee of the European Savings and Retail Banking Group (WSBI-ESBG) and the Legal Committee at the Luxembourg Banking Association (ABBL).

In his capacity as a Chairman of the ESBG Legal Committee he has oriented the discussions on strategic corporate objectives in banking.

Finally, he performs as a regular guest speaker in developing countries on topics like European banking law, compliance, money laundering prevention and deposit guarantee.

Peter Vermeulen

Attorney-at-law at the Luxembourg bar (Avocat à la Cour)

Peter Vermeulen is an independent attorney-at-law specialising in the insurance sector, providing legal, compliance and governance services.

He graduated in law from the Universities of Ghent (Belgium) and Tübingen (Germany) in 1996. Peter began his career at international law firms in Brussels, Frankfurt and Luxembourg, where he worked until 2008. He then transitioned to serve as in-house legal counsel for a private bank in Luxembourg until 2012.

From 2013 to 2024, Peter held the position of Chief Legal and Compliance Officer and Secretary to the Board at the largest local insurance group in Luxembourg, where he focused on both the non-life and life insurance markets.

In addition to his legal practice, Peter is an active member of the board of the Luxembourg Banking & Financial Law Association (ALJB) and a member of the Steering Committee of the Luxembourg chapter of the International Insurance Law Association (AIDA).

He is fluent in English, French, German, Dutch and Luxembourgish.
